

THE INNER ROOM

April 5, 2012

Prof. Javier Iguiniz

President

ICMICA-Pax Romana

Dear Javier Iguiniz,

I am writing on this holy day in my capacity as president of The Inner Room to formally express a desire for The Inner Room to affiliate with ICMICA at the coming Plenary Assembly of ICMICA-Pax Romana this year in Austria.

The Inner Room is a community that continuously invites and supports all to enter the deepened prayer space discussed by Jesus in Matthew 6:6. We are a recently formed Roman Catholic lay association focusing on deepening our prayer life, developing our understanding of the spiritual path, and engaging in social justice activities in light of the Social Teachings of the Catholic tradition. Our organization is composed of lay Catholic professionals and intellectuals with members spread across the United States who share a concern for Vatican II as well as a concern for developing a spirituality of contemplation, reflection and action in the tradition of specialized Catholic Action. Our focus is linking deep contemplation and theological reflection with just action in the world and so we have an interest in having The Inner Room be a resource for contemplation and theological reflection for the entire Pax Romana family around the world.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Deepest peace in Christ,

KEVIN JOHNSON

President
